Study (Writing and Word Work)

Students work with words through fun and engaging activities. At the 6th grade level, students focus on root words, suffixes and prefixes, and how to derive meaning of words. While I incorporate spelling into this word work time, vocabulary is a weakness for my students. Using Balanced Literacy in the ELA Classroom A mini-lesson is a short lesson that focuses on a specific skill or concept. For example, if we are learning about consonant digraphs I might plan a mini-lesson to teach or compare the /ch/ and /c/ sounds.
