defeated by the young David in single combat. The story signified Saul's unfitness to rule, as Saul himself should have fought for Israel. Scholars today believe that the original listed killer of Goliath was Elhanan, son of Jair, and that the authors of the Deutoronomic history ... Goliath -

Wikipedia Although David and Goliath focuses almost exclusively on underdogs and their unexpected advantages, there are moments throughout the book when Gladwell's analysis highlights something broader—namely, the fact that humans often cling stubbornly to their convictions because they believe them to be moral, even when this is not the case. This dynamic is especially evident in the story ... David and Goliath Themes |
