an ancient sling looked like. It was made from animal hair. Many people think of ancient slings as not much more than toys. However, the Bible tells us that a young shepherd named David killed the giant Philistine, Goliath, with a very accurately slung stone (1 Samuel 17:40, 49). David's sling and stones: Were they toys or serious ... It begins with an account of David and Goliath, confirming that David could have easily killed the giant, Goliath, with a stone flung from his sling. It also relates that the ancient Israelites used detachments of slingers in their wars; for example, picking off soldiers stationed on or inside the walls of cities that they were besieging.
