Cultural ... The cultural context and import of legal rules and institutions is the subject of increasing scholarly interest. Also taking a cultural turn, this book insists that the processes of resolving disputes, as much as the normative rules that are applied to them, have a cultural origin and impact. Law, Culture, and Ritual: Disputing Systems in Cultural ... Law, Culture, and Ritual: Disputing Systems in Cultural Context . By Oscar Chase. Abstract. The argument of this book consists of two core ideas: First, that the processes societies use for dispute resolution reflect the culture in which they are found. For this purpose, culture includes social arrangements, belief systems, values, and shared ... Law, Culture, and Ritual: Disputing Systems in
