that the spirituality of the Gospel of Life is based on self-giving love in the everyday experiences of daily life. This “everyday heroism” is grounded in prayer and involves a sharing in the mystery of the Cross.

Especially in our materialistic culture, we need to emphasize “being” over ... Living the Gospel of Life in Ordinary Daily Life ... Daily life is where we continue our growth both in knowledge of the Gospel and its implementation. Our Franciscan symphony combines the rhythm of learning and doing the Gospel - day after day after day. We commit ourselves to this process.

Without the Gospel we would be lost, feel isolated or threatened, inadequate or despairing. Living a Gospel Life - Secular Franciscans Spiritual life covers everything. In Living the Gospel of Life, the bishops teach that there is no Gospel-free zone. Our leisure time, as well as the time we spend sleeping, traveling or working, are part of our spiritual lives. Our political lives, in particular, cannot be seen as Gospel-free zones. Living the Gospel of Life - Living Faith - Home & Family ... In living a Gospel-centered way of life, Christians witness to their faith and evangelize. Conversion This way of life necessarily begins in conversion and is sustained by ongoing conversion. Way of Life - Gospel Living IV. Living the Gospel of Life: the Virtues We Need "It is impossible to further the common good without acknowledging and defending the right to life, upon which all the other inalienable rights of individuals are founded and from which they develop." --Pope John Paul II, The Gospel of Life 20.
