(one of which is his own) of modern family creation, including surrogacy, adoption, single parenthood and multi-parenting. Modern Families: Stories of Extraordinary Journeys to ... One caution is that while this is a book you can dip into and out of, it can be hard at times to keep all the families and the people who make them up straight (no pun intended) given the multiple families featured. A lasting theme of Modern Families is: "How extraordinary you are, and yet how ordinary." While the families profiled here were brought together thanks to various types of technology, often in extraordinary ways, in the end the children and their parents are ordinary.
