This book was one of Professor Slingerland's recommended readings for his China 300X MOOC. It presents an excellent overview of classical Chinese thought from the ancient "Hundred Schools of Thought" (500 - 221 BCE). It offers a representative and rich selection of texts from Confucius to Zhuangzi in impeccable modern translations, together ... Readings in Classical Chinese Philosophy, second edition ... I'm not a specialist in Chinese philosophy, but I've been developing a teaching competency and I'm now regularly teaching a lower level Asian philosophy course that includes a unit on classical Chinese philosophy. This is a helpful book for beginners with mostly accessible, readable translations. Sometimes I wonder if maybe longer and more robust introductions to each school would help, but ... Readings in Classical Chinese Philosophy by Philip J. Ivanhoe Readings in Classical Chinese Philosophy introduces the seven most widely read and important thinkers of the "classical period" (roughly the sixth to the end of the third century B.C.E.) of Chinese philosophy. Each chapter begins with a very brief introduction to the text and the thinker it concerns and concludes with a short and lightly annotated, selective bibliography. The volume is
