Relations Obama's foreign policy legacy for Europe has really been to compel European policy makers to think more thoroughly about the end of the uni-polar moment in international relations. Obama was seen as a president who over-compensated for the interventionism and unilateralism that came define his predecessor, George W. Bush. What's Obama's European legacy? - POLITICO East Germany became a Soviet satellite. After Communism collapsed in Eastern Europe in 1989, Germany was reunified with American support. It became an economic and political powerhouse in Europe and a close ally of the United States. However, relations cooled after Donald Trump was elected president in 2016.
