Your maternity notes At the end of the first appointment, your midwife will give you your maternity notes in a book or a folder. These notes are a record of your health, appointments and test results in pregnancy. They also have useful phone numbers, for example your maternity unit or midwife team. Your first midwife appointment - NHS Three books are included in this set - Call the midwife, farewell to the east end & shadows of the workhouse. The books are presented in this order, but I think it would be better to read shadows of the workhouse before farewell to the east end as this book concludes Jenny Lee's time as a midwife & summaries what happens to everyone else at Nonnatus House.
