... Asexuality is not a signal that a person is necessarily stunted emotionally or physically, and feeling sexual attraction or inclination is not the line everyone must cross to be treated like an adult. (I am also convinced that my late father passed this one down to me, along with several other genetic traits.) The author gives a discussion not just her personal experiences of what it means ... the invisible orientation: an introduction to asexuality June 24, 2014. The Invisible Orientation: An Introduction to Asexuality. In the last few years my interest in asexuality has shifted from a concern with the experience of asexual people to a preoccupation with why those who aren't asexual find it as confusing as they do. This can seem to be a confusingly niche interest, or at least I occasionally worry that it might come across that way. The Invisible Orientation: An Introduction to Asexuality ...
