The One-Straw Revolution: An Introduction to Natural ... the one-straw revolution is a pragmatic, philosophical exposition on "do-nothing" farming, an agricultural method that eschews nearly all modern technological and chemical enhancements in favor of a more holistic and balanced approach. masanobu fukuoka was a japanese farmer and often-ridiculed practitioner of this "do-nothing" style of farming (which, despite its name, actually requires ... The One-Straw Revolution by Masanobu Fukuoka I first learned of Fukuoka's One-Straw Revolution through a book-review in an American magazine, Mother Earth News, about the end of 1983. Although short, the review was soaked in the magic and power of this remarkable little book. It aroused in me an irresistible desire to read it. The One-Straw Revolution - Arvind Gupta "The One-Straw Revolution shows the critical role of locally based agroecological knowledge in developing sustainable farming systems."

--Sustainable Architecture "With no ploughing, weeding, fertilizers, external compost, pruning or chemicals, his minimalist approach reduces labour time to a fifth of more conventional practices. Yet his success in yields is comparable to more resource ... The One-Straw Revolution: An Introduction to Natural ...
