SuperSummary Simply put, the underdog is the side in a bet that is considered less likely to win. The underdog can be a team. For example, if the Golden State Warriors were playing the Phoenix Suns, the Suns would more than likely be the underdog since the Warriors are currently the better team. An underdog can also be a person. Should You Bet on the Public Underdog? When it comes to home underdogs betting, most expert bettors always caution new bettors to stay away from betting on the underdogs. They claim that the risk is higher because you stand to lose a big sum of money. However, this is gambling. Betting on anything is risky, however, it's often coupled with a high reward.
