Women, Families, and Communities Volume 1 ... Family patterns in Europe have undergone extensive changes in the past half century.
The early to mid-1960s marked the end of the “Golden Age of the Family” (Skolnick 1978; Sobotka 2011), with high marriage and birth rates at relatively young ages, few divorces, and a low prevalence of non-traditional family forms. By the late 20th century, fertility rates had declined well below the ... The New Roles of Men and Women and Implications for ... Having provided a brief explanation of what family violence entails and the number of women and families it impacts, this paper aims to address several key factors. First, the paper explores the history of family violence within Aboriginal communities, demonstrating the once taboo nature of violence against women and child.
